* California applicant/residents: You need not disclose any referral to, and participation in, any pre-trial or post-trial diversion program, or any misdemeanor convictions for which probation has been successfully completed and discharged. Do not list any marijuana-related misdemeanor convictions over two years old, or felony marijuana convictions under California Health and Safety Code Section 11360 (c) which occurred prior to 1976.

* Connecticut applicants/residents: You need not disclose any conviction record that has been erased pursuant to sections 46b-146, 54-76o or 54-142a of the Connecticut General Statutes. Records subject to erasure under these sections are records pertaining to a finding of delinquency or that a child was a member of a family with service needs, an adjudication as a youthful offender, a criminal charge that was dismissed or nolle, or a criminal charge for which the person was found not guilty or received an absolute pardoned conviction. Any person whose records were erased within the meaning of these three sections may consider such events to have never occurred and may so swear under oath.

*Hawaii applicants/residents: Do not respond to this question until you have been given a conditional offer of employment.

*Kentucky applicants/residents: You do not respond "Yes" as a result of any misdemeanor conviction where the date of conviction was more than five years ago.

*Massachusetts applicants/residents: An applicant for employment with a sealed record on file with the commissioner of probation may answer "no" to the above with respect to an inquiry herein relative to prior arrests, criminal court appearances or convictions. In addition, any applicant for employment may answer "no" to the above with respect to any inquiry relative to prior arrests, court appearances and adjudications in all cases of delinquency or as a child in need of services which did not result in a complaint transferred to the superior court for criminal prosecution.

You may exclude information regarding first convictions for the following misdemeanors: drunkenness, simple assault, speeding, minor traffic violations, affray, or disturbance of the peace, or a conviction for any misdemeanor where the conviction occurred or any prison sentence ended five or more years ago whichever date is later, unless you have been convicted of another offense within the last 5 years.

*Washington applicants/residents: You may exclude convictions that occurred over ten years ago.

NOTICE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

PURSUANT TO CALIFORNIA LAW

Trickum Ops, LLC (the "Company") intends to obtain information about you for employment purposes from a consumer reporting agency. Thus, you can expect to be the subject of "investigative consumer reports" and "consumer credit reports" obtained for employment purposes. Such reports may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living.

With respect to any investigative consumer report from an investigative consumer reporting agency ("ICRA"), the Company may investigate the information contained in your employment application and other background information about you, including but not limited to obtaining a criminal record report, verifying references, work history, your social security number, your educational achievements, licensure, and certifications, your driving record, and other information about you, and interviewing people who are knowledgeable about you. The results of this report may be used as a factor in making employment decisions. The source of any investigative consumer report (as that term is defined under California law) will be Orange Tree Employment Screening, 7275 Ohms Lane, Minneapolis, MN 55439, 800-886-4777. The source of any credit report will be Orange Tree Employment Screening, 7275 Ohms Lane, Minneapolis, MN 55439, 800-886-4777. The Company agrees to provide you with a copy of an investigative consumer report when required to do so under California law.

Under California Civil Code section 1786.22, you are entitled to find out from an ICRA what is in the ICRA's file on you with proper identification, as follows:

- In person, by visual inspection of your file during normal business hours and on reasonable notice. You also may request a copy of the information in person. The ICRA may not charge you more than the actual copying costs for providing you with a copy of your file.
- A summary of all information contained in the ICRA's file on you that is required to be provided by the California Civil Code will be provided to you via telephone, if you have made a written request, with proper identification, for telephone disclosure, and the toll charge, if any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to you.
- By requesting a copy be sent to a specified addressee by certified mail. ICRA's complying with requests for certified mailings shall not be liable for disclosures to third parties caused by mishandling of mail after such mailings leave the ICRA's.

"Proper Identification" includes documents such as a valid driver's license, social security account number, military identification card, and credit cards. Only if you cannot identify yourself with such information may the ICRA require additional information concerning your employment and personal or family history in order to verify your identity.

The ICRA will provide trained personnel to explain any information furnished to you and will provide a written explanation of any coded information contained in files maintained on you. This written explanation will be provided whenever a file is provided to you for visual inspection.

You may be accompanied by one other person of your choosing, who must furnish reasonable identification. An ICRA may require you to furnish a written statement granting permission to the ICRA to discuss your file in such person's presence.
